1. PROTOCOLS

A/P1/7/87 CULTURAL FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR THE ECONOMIC COMMUNITY OF WEST AFRICAN STATES (ECOWAS)

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES

CONSIDERING Article 49 of the Treaty of the Economic Community of West African States on cooperation in social and cultural matters.

GUIDED by:

- the Cultural Charter of Africa,
- the Declaration of the Principles of International Cultural Co-operation adopted by the General Conference of UNESCO, at its fourteenth session in Paris in 1966,
- the Inter-Governmental conference on Cultural Policies in Africa, organised by UNESCO with the co-operation of the Organisation for African Unity in Accra in 1975,
- the World Conference on Cultural Policies organised by UNESCO in Mexico in 1982.

CONVINCED that culture is a fundamental dimension of development, of which economic growth is only one aspect; and that the integration of cultural factors in development strategies will ensure a well-balanced development, and further, that development, when rooted in the culture of the peoples concerned, and a part of their system of values, will emancipate them from any form of economic, social and cultural dependency.

MINDFUL of the need to establish a form of cultural co-operation which will make it possible to take into account the cultural aspect of projects within the framework of regional development plans and strategies, and to foster a sense of belonging to the same cultural community;

ARE AGREED UPON THE FOLLOWING:

PART I

BASIC PRINCIPLES

ARTICLE 1

The Member States and the Community undertake:

- a) to promote the cultural identity of their respective peoples, cultural identity being understood as a dynamic process of continuity, creativity and approaches to innovation which is different in each population;
- b) to establish between each other, for their mutual enrichment, and with a view to creating a spirit of dialogue and exchange a cultural co-operation, based on mutual respect of differences.

Article 2

In pursuing this objective, constant attention is given to taking socio-cultural factors into account in the definition, implementation and evaluation of projects of common interest, on the adaptation of technology and in the transmission of knowledge, as to safeguard the structural cohesion of each population and their social evolution.

PART II

DEFINITIONS

Article 3

For the purposes of the present Cultural Framework Agreement, terms are defined as follows:

1 "TREATY": The Treaty of the Economic Community of West African States.

2 "Community": The Economic Community of West African States.

3 Member State(s)": Member State(s) of the Community.

4 "Authority": Authority of Heads of State and Government established by Article 5 of the Treaty.

5 Council": ECOWAS Council of Ministers established by Article 6 of the Treaty.

6 "Executive Secretariat": The Executive Secretariat of ECOWAS established by Article 8 of the Treaty.

7 "Agreement": The Cultural Framework Agreement.

8 "Region": The geographical area of West Africa, covered by the Community.

9 "Regional Co-operation": Co-operation planned or taking place, either:

- between two or more Member States.
- or between one or more Member States on the one hand and one or more neighbouring non-Member States on the other hand.

10 "Inter-regional co-operation": Co-operation planned or taking place:

- between one or more African regional organisations whose Member States are also Members of the Community,
- between one or more Member States and States from other regions,
- between one or more Member States and from other regions.

11 "Regional Project": a project that is the object of regional co-operation.

PART III

THE OBJECTIVES

Article 4

The major objectives of the Agreement are as follows:

- 1 Improvement of the populations standard of living and social progress through the development of creativity.
- 2 Regional integration by means of community development which takes into account the specific socio-cultural realities and aspirations of the Member State population while at the same time responding to their fundamental needs and integrating their economic and cultural dimensions.
- 3 The creation of Community awareness upheld by a sense of belonging to the same cultural Community which is founded on historical, linguistic and geo-political links.
- 4 Affirming the presence of, and thus both safeguarding and promoting, the specific cultural identities of the Member States and of the Community they form, through international exchanges and the reinforcement of regional bilateral co-operation and the development of inter-regional co-operation.

PART IV

AREAS OF APPLICATION

Article 5

- 1 In the domain of cultural co-operation of the Community Member States shall conduct integrated programmes which involve appropriate activities in education, training and research, science and technology, information, and communication, and cultural productions.
- 2 These integrated programmes shall be linked to other sectors of co-operation envisaged by the Treaty. The aim being to foster the self advancement of the people, and to stimulate their abilities of adaptation and creativity. Their projects shall take into account the cultural identities and the social and economic realities of the Member States

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Article 6

The Community shall support Member States in restructuring and adapting their education systems to their socio-cultural situations and value systems, this involves particularly regional projects of the following kinds:

- 1 Educational renewal, reforms in teaching or in the system of education.
- 2 The integration of education and training with development activities with a view to making better use of human resources.
- 3 Comparative studies of the educational systems of two or more Member States with a view to harmonising them, differences and complementarities.
- 4 Inter-university exchange of teachers, students and the administrative personnel of schools and universities.
- 5 Introductory and advanced training in the

- 6 principal languages of communication and the official languages of the Community. Literacy programme, particularly for rural populations with special emphasis on women in order to further their participation in education and development.
- 7 Training of rural workers to improve their qualifications and increase their ability to meet the needs of agricultural expansion and master the new appropriate technologies.
- 8 Occupational retraining and professional training of teachers, trainers, workers in the different sectors of development with a view to improving and renewing human resources.
- 9 The production of teaching aids for secondary and higher education establishments and for professional training centres.
- 10 Training of specialists in video communication and in educational equipment, supported by the establishment of sound libraries to facilitate the gathering of oral traditions and the intensive use of local languages for organising popular participation in development.
- 11 The Organisation of teaching seminars and workshops for the evaluation of experiments in different areas of training.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH

Article 7

The Community and its Member States on the one hand and the Member States among themselves on the other, shall co-operate closely, according to their needs, in planning and carrying out scientific and technological research programmes in sectors of activity which contribute to the social and economic progress of the countries and their populations, particularly in such areas as environment and natural resources, industry and energy, health and nutrition, agriculture, animal husbandry and fishing and medicine and pharmaceuticals.

Article 8

The research projects shall take into account the real needs and living conditions of the populations concerned and aim to catalyse and sustain integrated national and regional development by:

- 1 The reinforcement or establishment of pure and/or applied institutions to serve the region.
- 2 Co-operation in integrated research programmes between universities and appropriate institutions.
- 3 The training of scientists, auxiliaries and technicians for research.
- 4 The strengthening and establishment of networks for exchanging scientific and technological information and documentation.
- 5 Showing the value of local technologies, identifying new sources of adaptable foreign technologies and adapting appropriate technologies.
- 6 The reinforcement or establishment of research and documentation on cultural development.

- 7 The establishment of "Centres of Excellence" in the Community within the existing universities, and the institution of "Science Prizes" for original work by citizens of Member States, which make a significant contribution to regional development.
- 8 The organisation of seminars on methodology, symposia and meetings to encourage co-operation among researchers and through the exchange of information, to make them corporately responsible for the growth of the Community's scientific capital, etc...

CULTURAL INDUSTRIES AND CULTURAL PRODUCTIONS

Article 9

To promote local creativity and technology in Member States actions shall be taken to develop cultural productions, and to improve their structures and mechanism namely cultural industries.

Article 10

Cultural Industries in the context of this agreement are the complex of existing structures and technological mechanisms together with the cultural goods they help to produce on an industrial scale such as audio-visual: audio-visual productions, artisan products, books, films, records, cassettes, graphics and post-cards etc...

Article 11

Recognising that cultural industries make effective use of their human resources and strengthen their cultural and economic autonomy Member States and the Community shall promote these through national and regional projects such as:

- 1 The establishment or strengthening of regional and sub-regional production units for radio and television receivers.
- 2 The production and distribution of teaching material and equipment for audio-visual information popularisation.
- 3 Co-operation by nationals of several Member States of films, cultural programmes and documentaries for radio and television.
- 4 The establishment or improvement of production and distribution centres for gramophone records, cassettes, films, books, etc...
- 5 The establishment or strengthening of centres for promoting local crafts, and the improvement of traditional craft technologies
- 6 The periodical organisation of a fair for the cultural industries, and of special fairs, for crafts, books, etc...
- 7 The organisation of periodical meetings of specialists from the Member States on the commercialisation of cultural products and the problems arising from this in relation to preserving the national culture heritage of each country.
- 8 The promotion of traditional medicine and pharmacopeia.

CULTURAL TOURISM

Article 12

The Member States and the Community, aware of the contribution that Tourism can make to economic and social development are agreed on establishing forms of co-operation, such, as to make it possible to avoid the negative effects of exogeneous tourism on certain areas and populations of the country concerned, through the development of cultural tourism.

Article 13

In the context of the present Agreement, Cultural Tourism is understood as the voluntary movement of citizens of the Community within Member States, both within theirs as well as in others, with the aim of knowing more about their socio-cultural realities and establishing relations between individuals and groups in accordance with the objectives of the Community. In this regard the Community shall undertake:

- 1 An annual regional programme of cultural tourism for youths, school children and university students, workers and women.
- 2 Organisation of study trips to Member States for citizens of the Community responsible for national development projects which could be of importance to regional integration.
- 3 Training programmes and refresher courses for tourism personnel.

Article 14

Laws shall be made for the protection of cultural heritage by regulating the circulation of cultural goods among Member States to a non-Member State.

CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Article 15

Member States and the Community, in order to fulfill the aims of the present Agreement, shall encourage the promotion of cultural exchanges through:

- 1 Bilateral cultural exchange between Member States and cultural diffusion within the Community.
- 2 Meetings and exchanges between artists, Community leaders, producers, scientists, intellectuals, youths, women, cultural associations, workers, etc.
- 3 The organisation every three years, of a Regional Festival of Culture.
- 4 The organisation of cultural events in Member States, which will be of interest to several Member States at the same time, for example: shows, exhibitions, forums, fairs, etc...
- 5 Exchange, in the form of fixed term loans, of rare or unique cultural goods from one Member State to another.
- 6 The exchange of programmes and cultural broadcasts between radio and television centres, media libraries and audio-visual production centres in the Member States.

Article 16

- 1 In order to develop cultural exchange and foster a fairly wide distribution of cultural productions of Member States within the Community, Member States shall provide facilities for the diffusion of original cultural products, in particular by allowing them to benefit from the exchange regulations defined by the Treaty for the liberalisation of exchanges. To this end, the list of priority cultural products and cultural industries will be decided upon by the Council.
- 2 Similarly the Community shall, in order to promote more balanced exchanges between Member States and the industrialised countries, develop inter-regional co-operation which will facilitate the distribution of cultural products from the Community in other regions.

MEANS AND CONDITIONS OF IMPLEMENTATIONArticle 17

The financial means for implementing the Agreement are expected mainly from the following sources:

- 1 The normal budget of the Community,
- 2 The Compensation and Development Fund of the Community;
- 3 Special voluntary contributions from Member States, as well as various gifts and legacies from Member and non-Member States, foundations, organisations, private individuals and associations, etc...
- 4 The sale of various products;
- 5 The retention of five (5) per cent, instituted by decision of the Council, of the net proceeds from cultural events organised under the auspices of the Community;
- 6 Loans contracted from international sources of financing;
- 7 Any other source approved by the Council.

Article 18

In keeping with the spirit of the Treaty, the Agreement will enhance bilateral co-operation between Member States, assist in carrying out national projects and support regional projects in so far as they fulfil one or more of the following criteria:

- 1 A project geared towards cultural complementarity and which can contribute to the process of economic integration at the regional level.
- 2 A project linked to existing regional cultural plans and programmes.
- 3 A project requiring an institutional multi-lateral framework for its implementation.
- 4 A project designed and located in only one country which may be of interest to neighbouring Member States.
- 5 A project in which two or more Member States participate, even if this does not involve the installation of any physical structures in a given country.

- 6 A project which includes co-ordinated national sub-projects within a multinational institutional structure linking sub-projects with different characteristics resulting from separate investments.

Article 19

As the need arises and at the request of Member States, the Community will award scholarships or allowances to cover all or part of the cost of training courses, study programmes, travel for studies, etc... for citizens of Member States to enable them to visit Member States other than their own for training or information, or to visit non-Member States for this purpose.

The period for which the Community takes this responsibility cannot exceed 24 months.

Article 20

In view of its needs and according to the interest of their programmes, the Community will co-operate with centres or institutions of study, training and research for the implementation of some of its own programmes, by providing all or part of the cost involved, or by contributing to the implementation of the institutions programmes. In such cases these centres or institutions will play the role of executing agency of specific projects.

Article 21

Member States shall place at the disposal of the Community civil servants who are designated and requested for by the Community as consultants. The length of a consultant's services shall not exceed six months.

PART VIFINAL PROVISIONS*Article 22

Any dispute in the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be resolved by direct and amicable discussion, failing which the dispute shall be referred to the Council of Ministers who may report to the Heads of State and Government.

Article 23

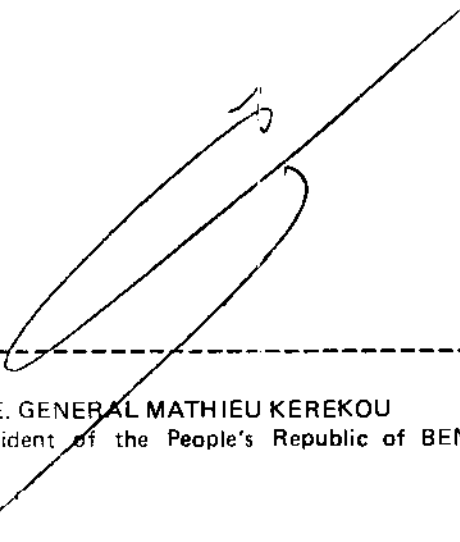

- 1 This Agreement shall provisionally come into force upon signature by the Heads of State and Government, and finally into effect after being ratified by at least seven of the signatory States, in conformity with the constitutional laws of each Member State.
- 2 This Agreement together with all the instruments of ratification will be submitted to the Executive Secretary of the Community who will transfer true certified copies of this document to all the Member States and notify them of the date for depositing the instruments of ratification.
- 3 Each Member State shall be informed by the Executive Secretary of the steps to be taken for the application of the Agreement.

Each Member State shall inform the Executive Secretariat of measures it has taken for the application of this Agreement.

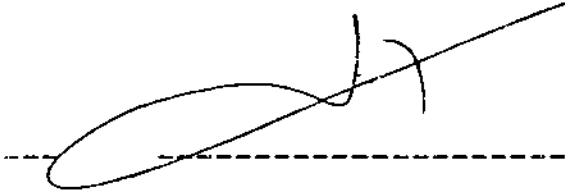

This Framework Agreement was signed by the Heads of State and Government of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS).

ECOWAS MONETARY COOPERATION PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTION

An ECOWAS Monetary Cooperation Programme involves the adoption of collective policy measures designed to achieve a harmonised monetary system and common management institutions. The programme envisages the adoption of a phased approach to monetary cooperation towards the achievement of the following objectives:

1. SHORT-TERM OBJECTIVES

- Improvement and strengthening of the WACH mechanism to facilitate increased intra-regional trade and payments transactions through greater use of national currencies.

2. MEDIUM AND LONG-TERM OBJECTIVES

- (a) Achievement of limited convertibility;
- (b) The creation of a Single Monetary Zone which will have the following features:
 - a common monetary authority
 - the issue of a common convertible currency
 - the pooling and management of all reserves
 - the formulation of a common policy on short-term external liabilities arising from trade and balance of payments financing. The policy on management of medium and long-term debt will however, be the responsibility of each Member State.
 - the adoption of a common monetary policy

- an agreement on convertibility guarantee.

3. POLICY MEASURES TO ACHIEVE SHORT-TERM OBJECTIVES

- (i) The establishment of a forum at the level of the Committee of Governors of Central Banks to undertake, within a period of six months, with effect from the date of signature of the decision by the Authority, negotiations between debtor and creditor banks aimed at settling all delayed settlements through WACH.
- (ii) The extension of the range of eligible products and transactions to be channelled through the WACH mechanism. All Member States shall take necessary steps to ensure implementation of this measure.
- (iii) The establishment of a viable unit at the level of WACH Secretariat and the strengthening and revitalising of the unit at the ECOWAS Executive Secretariat in order to compile and disseminate information pertaining to intra-regional tradeable goods and services.
- (iv) The introduction of a credit and guarantee fund mechanism in WACH, after the completion of the detailed studies with the following terms of reference:
 1. The purposes for which the fund may be employed.
 2. The determination of the size of the credit fund
 3. Methods and formulae for the mobilisation of the credit fund and for its replenishment.
 4. The rules pertaining to access to the fund including the financial terms and conditions of borrowing and repayment, and borrowing limits.
 5. The conditions for the use of the resources of the credit fund and forms of sanctions for non-payment.

- (v) The settlement obligations which underline an efficient clearing system should be strictly adhered to and measures should be taken under which settlements are made promptly.

4. POLICY MEASURES TO ACHIEVE MEDIUM AND LONG-TERM OBJECTIVES

1. The commitment by Member States to collectively implement necessary adjustment measures specified in the Monetary Zone Report, namely:
 - (i) The total liberalisation of eligible products in intra - ECOWAS trade in accordance with the ECOWAS trade liberalisation scheme and the removal of all licensing and exchange control restrictions including administrative and non-tariff barriers on factors of production.
 - (ii) Adjustment in exchange rates designed to align and harmonise exchange rates to improve the balance of payments position and enhance the level of international reserves in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Report during the agreed transitional period of five (5) years, 1988 – 1992.

- (iii) Adjustment in fiscal policies and domestic credit to the private sector designed to ensure monetary stability and the achievement of sustained economic growth by the adoption of a uniform policy on Central Bank and Commercial Bank credit to Government in any one year not in excess of an indicative ceiling of 20% of the previous year's fiscal revenues, subject to charging domestic and external economic conditions of Member States.
2. The adoption of a transitional period of five years covering the period 1988 to 1992 for completing the adjustments mentioned in 4.1(ii) - (iii) above by Member States and undertaking all necessary preparatory measures during this period.
 3. Close coordination between countries on the design and implementation of their national macro-economic policies.
 4. The setting up of an interim coordinating Committee comprising representatives of all the Central Banks, Ministries of Finance/National Treasuries and the Executive Secretariat, to undertake the necessary follow-up action on details of programme of implementation; to monitor and review progress in implementation and undertake relevant preparatory measures envisaged during the transitional period including adjustments in legal frameworks. The Executive Secretariat of ECOWAS in collaboration with the Committee of Governors of Central Banks is entrusted with the responsibility of setting up and coordinating the work of the Committee.
