Rein marches out in the direction of Seigneurie to go about this is of the nature of day.

The seigneurie exists, by most, as a double day
+ the opinion is the Seigneurie, Essama, Assanta. c.a. have chosen the side of Assanta which Bezi is in danger.

We wanted our Bezi return quickly back, (they will not admit not answer to us) & they want to speak to the King first to send to Assanta to learn news, ~~but~~ from the chief here of Seigneurie, Don Exant in fact.
At this point I say I will send a soldier out there to Assanta & will be to Bezi

I am particularly convinced that Bezi will not take again the Seigneurie (I mean the people, not the King). I have asked this morning about "the Seigneurie after ^{c.a.} takes the English flag what the next we do?" It is \therefore very clear 50 soldiers arrive not in the defense of the fort (this is not defensible & there is not any sensible cannon, ^{not} cannon Viola or ball) but San Bezi, what the Shall flag be chosen by a warship.
