this evening Colon Coetzje has sent his reward here & has me asked for 4 eng rum also has said that I should send one of my rewards to ~~de~~ L. Erceffe & he has been going to say to me.

I replied to the messenger that I was surprised Coetjari had we asked for spirits, as he had said Coetjari's spirit was open & servant, we Hollanders will dogeten & best was, dat die hem ook zaden vergeessen as we diffidely had come: & which statement he had done & put effort to us down & tenets, so dit I could not comply with his wish, and less send him a servant, & if he had anything to say he could do we know it for the Hollanders would no longer let themselves be so ungelovely van them: but that I had done him in down & waters that if they began to us Cristaliteit spirit to for or subjects they should be put & de cannon. Whence I advised them to keep quiet & to leave his "maucos" up to gain to come by night under the fort to defend de treasors of their goods & to make violence as if by night to capture de fort & storm & happened past night, or otherwise I should prevent them doing so with de cannon. I will await what they will send back or communicate to you.

Let this I have heard, let upon this message let at our God with them the goods which his people had Holland last night.

The Amstercamers are here all in the town have today had their messengers to greet me & with them that they come their delectable business here in the town & they were good nature's words and otherwise than on the first Assembly day - which will be next Monday; so to C. Drossie I have seen her - Spirit pipes & tobacco which they were very pleased. The good Companions, seen to be both on our side. That they will not drink with my son, because on your way can do better papers to given. Let do if I need them I must give but one equal and the same other will then come divide. But they are all families - one can depend on it as is better & on the other side let me do not need them.

So, I have that the France letters will be in C. Drossie next Saturday when they will have the meeting at the beginning of next week & that let me know what they desire in the Hollander not getting, and the certain against hostilities. The other of our side being, I'll will put in opposition to because the respect of the ^{Spaniards are} will be France, Solano, Paris & winter - let it seem to them that, he sent one him. Calix Munichia has just requested the two of the Brain water's should come to the side of the river. told he also should send two ft - order to wait everything further there. they then would come to Elm.

Therefore I at once set sail but could not progress thro' the ^{calix} ^{water} channel I was forced to Brain in morning of 4th in order to ascertain what was fundamental what further I should use as in the water; but as I did not find him here, I then consulted with the Proth Keij's, who have called in the linguists Prote of the Cree to inform him of the water is a new town was to go to the river to Munichia; but they replied to us that they must first speak with the Equiva King & Colours; whereas I have waited till this morning: & am to report to you. but as I see in your books, his time to be able to report the totals with stop of that matter so I report to you without delay loss of time according to my instructions & duty.

I have been very anxious to let Parichia be persuaded that he should attend me this first to work upon to you before the papers was called at the river: but he has not told he would not possibly attend that. He said he would be there on the third day: & I believe the reason he had was because every day an English Coy ship would come with ammunition & powder Cannon: & if peace should be finally concluded with us, I believe he would not allow the same or there. I will wait await of his orders, & also by Peter Kramer must now live as fugitives: that certainly de Coy wd not have negotiated to assist them further with war people, but Merits Coyt. however had come to anchor at de Cape, Amunido had sent a word refused us peace: that de Coy, obvious had embraced his opportunity had appointed me to enter into negotiations with those of de Cape, if possible to conclude a good peace: that I had & partly waited for the would not contradict them: in order to convince them

March 26. In the train (Fri) 22/3

As regards the war and Araucan: I found C. April so far say any war about it except that of servants of the swallow, sent to the Coop for not yet returned: but last week they set two, with a hurricane of Araucan: to let know that they were still stopping at the place where Beck quon lived, that Araucan was summoned there to him on Thursday, as he was busy nothing certain. Some of his deed was ^{was} I expect them

March 30. In the train (F) 26/3. - dash C April Monday evening [23rd inst] my servants returned with the swallow, in the Coop circum of 11 C April among them an offer, a letter, as well Araucan's gold sword, no hurricane etc.

Their message which they came to make consisted in a white ulcos for the beginning of the war here has of the honour to be cast the whole blame upon Janus this people - being the reason of this letter:

that he had no polaver with the whites nor Mexins, nor the rest of the Equinos but only with the success of Mica Teffi: that he thro' his cousin Tyke had had present permission for him & his brother: & that Belkquon had also had a share by his Lewis (of the paper) ^{name}, who was sent this country & order to give to some of the Mexins ~~to~~ ^{to} the the records of the Equinos, or long were to permit themselves: but that the success of Mica Teffi must be entirely described & gestated: that he would make the polaver separately as by not any same names &c.
 This appeared to me that Am: might to offend his work can Jaun as soon as he could but see opportunity thereof. I hope that it would be unreasonable indeed even verbeijelyk to enter into negotiation with him & to have Jaun over as prey to his wade: that this would give a good break to the good name which the Hollanders have so far in the Indies After I had asked the Mexins Equinos for their views about this I saw that they were in entire agreement with me I let Jaun know their views, & assured him of the protection of the Hon^{ty} Coj, at the same time advising him to keep quiet ^{personally} & ^{secretly} to charge his people to behave friendly towards those of Mexin: that nothing

After the Embassy had been solen & drunk well none was satisfied. I gave them the following reply " That as an embassy and the King of France: with the follow message^{ing}, the complaints of Bruce: the brother Boa Pennin (also at first time I read that from the letter): but 3 days after the arrival of the English boats tender, he proceeded with his brother to the place where the Whitman on the sea, also informed him that, during his absence, he,

Americain had entered into negotiation with his quarters of the Hollanders, had so far agreed with the Faction of Penn that each had been granted on both sides for security of the bycen house, as letter said, a stipulation of arms: that the bycen house would bloody have taken place, was it not that he had waited for his Treacher (it is T). to inform him of it: &c

When for his headers ten certain had asked of any paper had also passed between his Quere: & we, & learning the contrary he said that his papers could be seen little, ~~that~~ still, that he Quere: must stop the further negotiations with us: that he would do nothing, but that he would first had departed very un-returned: but his letter Quere must consider the reply had been given him and help
