inst I have taken very great trouble to trace & peruse with writing the Contracts & Firmans which have formerly been concluded & the Natives with our Nation but it has not been possible to get to one of their own words. We are afraid of the other, but I hear that the Persepandes of here must only wish to make a new Peace or Contract but desire to make the Customs much longer than they have been previously:

1785. the Sunday Quire pipes tobacco which the Correggidor is accustomed to get, each Quarter wants to have two and, as I hear, as a recompense for their assistance N.B. at the time of Admiral de Ruyter, between the City. This is a matter which is quite beyond me. A decree of Commandant they seek to bring up to 12 or 2 each: so that they will indulge everything which was customary before. Lord Heung acquainted with here, could give me much enlightenment how far found in here & if week with letter date away the Lord Cubicts enclosed with the Rolls in former days, preserved in the Council Chamber, one of Commanteyn is indeed to be found here while we could get much light: if such a cost to be found of Commanteyn there will certainly be Cubicts which could made and Fourteen according to which one could be regulated. of the English Commissr Lieut Porter discovered going a pumpkroop charged Port Cheveroon. We espoused sd Lieut Parker opinions, when he said schekken it, to take over the Lodge Pettie the Ports Penna & Poway also him him. I was one Commissr. He replied that it had come thro' sons that the sd Lodge & Ports had not been captured by the arms of his Brit Majty & as it had been done by of the Chell servants & subjects the .: considered he was not obliged to hand over the same to us as the English were not the Masters of them but the Hollanders. We asked him a decision that the Lodge & Ports had not been captured by the arms of the Brit: Majty would not do it.

Before we took over the Ports of Accra we informed Inkrehcan Otto that we would like it one or the day next him a message that he & his the Accra Lenquists & Brasten were desired to be present at the talk attend when the Port Cheveroon

& we could with well let that. Many wanted in Accra 1685. Accra for wch we proceeded on with the takeing over of the Fort without our Servants having returned: but at Even fall our servants returned and a message from the Governour was ye Morrow that day we should have the Fort

The next day, 9th day, we went to the appointed place to find which the Otto we found the Workmen Otto were there who had sent our Servants to hasten their coming: but we waited till midday when our Servants returned with the Accra Governour Quashie Pain & Tappan. & replied that when we had had them called, they had been into the Danish Fort to inform the Danish Governour of it, who was very offended at it that we had not written to him as he had protected them & treated them well. We informed Quashie Pain & Tappan that as the Workmen & Ceremonies had not come, we had taken over all the Forts & they could not that Yoke flag was planted at Accra. Lindley gave desired to have the prisoners in our hands as quickly as possible which we desired that they would send Messengers with the English Ropes as all our Masters had been taken away who could not travell close to look after our affairs in place & fast. They then went away promised our speedy Service to bring them. To which reply Evening our stay here we heard various rumours that the Danish power was taking very trouble withdraw our subjects themself: that the day before yesterday we had sent some men & slaves to Rome to speak the pope, & this morning Walkelan Otto informed us that the Lemma Easter had come into the Danish port: that the Frisii had told them they must break up the port Lemma they replied that they (the Danes) could afford them Thursday & they will not do it, & broke this over to Otto. We cannot ascertain of our rumours whether such is true or not a while it was spread abroad in order to dupe us, but we immediately sent Ask the Vice to Venice Lemma & Rome to hasten the stall flag at each place & gave him letters sold to Emé to the Europeans & Qrs to announce that the war between us & the English was entirely ended with Mrs had been entered into 1785. whereby we again sent our flag to flank at our flagstaff as before they must be upon with the gold to drink, so that each could know that anything had been agreed what we expected that they as we had been would remain constant as loyal subjects to their masters, as before. We ordered

We learn at this moment that the Danish Gouv has given orders to have the Christ Kirche at Penning blown up & likewise that armed men shall be to fetch those who will oppose it.

This morning we had another meeting with the principles of our Nation, as also the principles of the Dutch nation, whether as the Danish Gouv has stopped their way for the present belonging to us & also the Inhabitants of this Castle and Province Fredrik or Pappans.

We have also heard that Jan Kuyge was with the Portuguese so before he has payment of what the Accras, according to his statement, are indebted to him which we must first write 1785. a letter to him or cause to him a person to thank him for the protection accorded to our people. ... We daily become aware more more of ~~things that have happen~~ things which happen things which resemble more preparations for more close friendship & neighbourship.

[Note. The explanations in the above letters are not very clear in some cases. In the majority of cases it would seem that they were indebted to Hollandese subjects who wished to pass to the English in order to satisfy the demand for their handing over. Generally the position was summed up that of the Dutch prisoners who demanded release were handed over except a few who elsewhere in the text, the sum of 18th Reals to be handed over. Others were, alleged to be passing for debts, owed before the war, it being explained that the English natives Reals were trying to get back such passing under guise of their being prisoners of war & deserters].

French at Rumsa Pt Akanfori Crum

The day before yday 23 being the 24 April. I got report from my Assistant Boerman at Cormantyn, that 2 small french ships had anchored in the roads of Elga, a small Crum, site between Annemaboe & Cormantyn & having lain there an Etmaal, sailed slowly down to below St Cormantyn. The Peregentes came into the fort and gave informed us first that the French desired to warlegger a fort near (bij) one of the leeward small Crums. Afterwards came a leger from Emisang Crum, with report that the French Governours were to build a fort there, which Crum negers Sig observed Hollands period te syn.

And the negers of the Akanforice Crum, English subjects, desired from the French that they would build a fort bij them. The previous day at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon a large French Warship, with a small 2 masted ship, passed Fort Cormantijn & went & anchored bij de Vorige.

And today I received a letter from my Assistant which informs me that that de Akonforise Negers had ontboden to them de Gl & small Cormantijn negers (Dutch subjects) beneveens the Fanemachoes & Etjas (Engs: subjects). The former refused to go representing that their Doctor was not there, but at Elmina: but the latter went thither; the reason is not yet known to me. That the Large French ship yesterday about 2 o'clock, fired, under the hoisting of the French flag on shore, and one could see clearly from Cormantijn that it had been placed bij de Akanforise Crew.

I further hear from rumour that de Captin of the Large warships has not yet been able to come on shore, through the heavy surf, in order to accommodate with de Negers who ~~afvragen~~ after afvragen a very large sum of money from the French Captin for the Customs, & that the Captin has offered 100 Bendos gold, & that the Caboceir Amokoe Quansang went go on board in order to ophalen the Captin. This Caboceirs father was a Holland subject & he himself wcent ciz Hollands gezid : but meanwhile he has

Honble Court Advocate, Exchange Sir

Sir

In continuation of the contents of my letter of the 26th ults I have the honor to report to the Honble, that I have got report from my Asstt from Commantyn that there two negers from the Berger or Gr Commantyns have said that they have been to AKan for to see what the French were doing there, & found that the Annemaboes, Efyas & Salt Crouse, all English negers, were there in order to build stores for the French & order hastily to build a Fort. They asked why the French had asked no permission from them before they built a Fort there, as it was their country & land (land & ground); to which the French replied that they had permission from the Prince of Orange & the King of England to build a fort there.

The day before Friday in afternoon the three Raades of St & Small Comenautyn came into the fort & informed us Assistant that they had sent 2 Envoys out of their midst to Atkan for our dear sens of ti zien to ask why they had planted the flag "op t Hollandse", to which they had replied just the same as to the 2 former legers, namely, that the French King had permission from the Prince of Orange & the King of England our een plaats uit te zoeken; & had nothing to say about it to the Cohites of Comenautyn. as they had only to give something to the legers & met hun eens konde worde in order to build a fort there. The French offered there the Envoys a flask of liquor but they refused to accept it saying that they had only come to see; upon which they went away: but the Cabiter Quansang gave these two envoys four flasks of liquor & verontschuldigde sich that it was [had not come]; that his 1786. toedoen dat de French had come there to build a fort but this matter must have been treated between the Hollanders, English & French in the Fatherland.

Meantime, S^H S^A Respected Sir, I hope that the generalities of various Fantijns are merely matter gemaakt, & that they are Fants rich te veden zyn dat the French have genomen their toevlugt (alone) alone & bij de Numenobues, Edgar & Salt Cronce as being, as before mentioned, English negers, and no others, as de Grande terre, Abra, Fresh Connantijn, & meer andere Cramen daar in gesteld hebben, so that I fear dat this smeulend fire wel eens onder hun tot een groote Vlam zal uitbarsten.

Address wanting. Written on the back of Rudolph Vlaming's letter of 22 May 1786 to Cape Town.

I have strictly charged my Assistant to do nothing in this matter but to listen, see, and be silent, & above all to report everything that happens

As soon as Price further news he Comm: I will report it to S^H. & have the honour &c. &c Yesterday, the Resolt related that he & the V.de Swyp French had been ordered agt informed by some Flemish subjects that they had heard a rumour that the French intended if possible to establish an "Establishment" at Norrowarij (being a certain 1784 British Subjects between Secc: & Chama. belonging main the latter part) when arrived in all probability to such a part of it was considered of the highest importance to make him enquire about it & to make timely provision thereof by planting a strong flag at Abrowtarie to guard & secure those same slaves 1 2 or 3 old soldiers.

Van Heycop said he was entirely of the same opinion relative that was very necessary, as the arrival Chama would be required hereby if the matter was found true: but he said he had so far heard nothing whatever about it: which made the Council decide not to decide on anything about it but as Heycop was commissioned on his return to Chama, to make

April 5 Van Rupp to Harris. I have just learnt that four subjects of Broña & Above Cave purjaned a Coy Canoe with tobacco & goods of mine to dear Kaos for what reason. & the Coy & I have no palaver with four subjects. For the security of the Coy & me I have already purjaned about 20 Lantyns & given orders to purjan everything else affairs. & the Coy must not be [illegible] until my Negro palaver. Which I had as above in not & or until (which I don't believe) I expect him to let me Know & Above I shall return into the purjaning.

April 6 Harris. cc. to Van R. I am not to blame for the purjaning of four Canoe. And the Bunisde people started to me & replied to me I should not have refused to assist to get about it I only upset that for dis act for 40 Lantyns instead of 20.

April 8 Van R to Harris Please inform me if the Bunisde are four subjects & mean for protection, so I can arrange accordly.

April 9 Paris CC to V du B. It is not easy to reply to four letters of 4 days because when four letters of 5th four appear to have very well that the Russisha a Prošun people are subjects of the British. I must add that as they gave me no information of their polaver before pawning four pfty, I suppose they also pawned a no of Fautyus before working for applant to me I do not intend to to trouble myself in the matter.

" July 24 d of Lt Hon J.W van Hoytema & Jb Pruller, Lord St Leb: C

We have .... after 4 days setting being kept to the necessity to depart, we must send Yr. a report of de occurrences whose for we have advanced.

On Tuesday morning when we rode a Acquiring, into the Parliaments Standes of Erode of de Gts we de 2 distinct peoples, viz Orlanders or Ulgabaunde came in as our Seruions & we informed them that we had been sent by ffth our to hear de disputes arisen between them other Commodes & come authorised to bring de matter to a peaceful end, but before we enquiring tat Commodes Obella de zipe we must perceive informe them that we denied (i.e. as interc) a complete satisfaction both for ffth effa as dis Murders, & dis of de SIC, our & de hurt & detriment done to their seuerall(s) townships de Port Cod been entrusted.

We take de Celerity to bring to ffth notice that we regard dis' case, just de same as that which occurred with Brig ego et Lautum guerre when de respons ego lod de ambassidz to Kidnap dat Commodes de Coffish Mr Thomas Jeffreys to bring him into de Gate & compelled him to ratify de Barge done. About which de Coffish Govt were strongly keefe to take getting leggen effn taken and satisfaction de respons & dis denied. and especially of more than 18 men slaves which were paid to dem by de Committee.

1668. We pursued this matter also along but could & demanded from them for the Cos. 50 bundas liquid gold but this by intervention & urgent request of the Islanders & Letjabansche & also the Chinas, reduced to 30 Bundas for which we required of one 6 Hostages in the Fort which they procured this week being in the week day. Wednesday.

Matters being brought so far we thought we had them on a good footing, & accepted with Gunbek so we sent our servants at several times when they came in Town on Sunday being 2 Empios & Hostages requiring a days adjournment when they said being in 2 more: as they used deliver &c. they would likewise, after promised according the empios in our hands, upon an agreement already drawn up by us, in which they promised to pay the 30 Bundas gold. and three first coming French ships which makes a sum of 120 Cos much: which request we having granted & agreed to, this statement of the Interpreters came to our ears. viz " that as pacify the Hollanders " they are those who abolished this Fort

Our Port - & our food vendors have not done such & also not offwalkers them. We were also, as little as they, in these times to come by English nor French: Thus if we give but 4 inpias It is evidence enough that we are Hollands & intend to pay the debt." The following day we expected the 2 odd lupias but to our great surprise & regret we learnt that the canoes which the Chiefs of Quassie Bunder had brought to Elmina, brought news on their return that they had been asked in Fumamansang Akuniim how the matter at Chama stood. They answered according to their knowledge & got reply "Have you driven away a bad Commandant without being paid? we should not do that" and were such like statements of our subjects. We have had to spend that day fruitlessly without being able to demand more from them: for what is more, the above related reasons have caused such an awakening on the minds of the Chamas that & especially the young men to whose topics the present must dance, that they were entirely refuse to come into the Fort.

but the Islanders of Utjabanse appeared to believe we gave to understand our great displeasure over the conduct of the Chiefs with which, as it seemed they also were quite displeased.

This morning we sent our servants again to summon them, but they refused to appear & had us informed that if we wished to proceed with the matter we should come into the grand Palace the gate, & as we waited to see an end, we entered but before this was done we required the 2 districts to come in to speak with them first & as soon as they wanted to appear they were stopped by the Chiefs & prevailed coming in, so we were obliged, if we wanted to proceed, to settle our places in the guard & to send our servants backwards & forwards to await our reply & the others reply - which began at 9 in morning & ended at 5 in afternoon. We acquitted Cowwan Ebeel of all the charges but the two districts, who were as mediators, did not as they found the factor in the wrong the principal cause of which was the sale of liquor more than half the tenants to his single balance: but on the other hand they declared that the Coy was greatly in the right about the midwife done to it. & so ought to be given honourable satisfaction upon which the young men stood up, with a great fierceness & said "the Coy does not yet know about the matter. we have pacify the Governor of d'Elmina with a Cow but we know nothing about 30 pendas gold or 3 French ships we have also were with pay such: but if the Governor wishes to send Ebell back he must give him a good reprimand & also that he in future "keep" his "word" or if he will then send another Commandant. upon which they departed.

Having proceeded so far we consider it meet to have of his advice as we are with various "aides" to decide the matter with ease. & we have also "employed all conceivable means but in vain. now: despatch this with to see your ideas how from to act. But we commend unto to prepare to ye (under correction) that, for some time in order to keep these subjects under better control, the French Captains should not be allowed 1688 to anchor here for longer than twice 24 hours & that they can, if they choose, go to Chunia for water & firewood just as the Portuguese ships whose they can be supplied with provisions just as well as here, in order in such manner to deprive these subjects of their profits in such way somewhat to strengthen their subsistence so that they show obedience towhom they are beholding: as we hear, not here but from several people, that the French Captains officers are the cause that they become [illegible] [illegible] through spotting & the young men who have not the least respect for the Hollt nation. The last card war & these ships also "ingevoert" little good here & we believe that such same conducting to the case of our Chell. ...

Tabie & Chawa — July 29 Resolut van Suyp to Van Vantwijck & Hubbe Rhule. Chawa. Acknowledges rich of above & states in reply that we shall never let ourselves be satisfied with the payment of 6 cans which resembles spotting rather than a towers matter in which we are most likely concerned.

For the offices done to the W.I.C. & to our "Directors" we require from the Chamber a sum of 10 men slaves (which can be reduced per note & for if they behave with good discretion): but if the Chamber nice with us it will not be convenient in their Proportion for such as then we great complaints in our name that both Prote & young men did not as they have duties & the offices & way Justice of their Commerce they have Big Obstacles from the authority of the nations & the Jurisdiction of the Portuguese nation, we also shall expand at each time as discovered & offensive subjects: that we shall place, an Arch a town one time as answer over the Fort for the payment of Restfield & wages to the garrison & Cap slaves: that we shall send orders to the windward Coast Forts & to "address" all Dutch ships direct to the Chief Castle where we shall provide them with Wolis (Negroes) & towns.
(which we shall obtain by way of Commerce): that we shall at once withdraw our hands from the Chamber remainder when the David Ends Cap & his hands: & finally that we shall afflicten & hinder all Chamber ships who come up the Leeward & Down down the Windward: & also obtain an Injustice.

Rest of day by Valken: Verbeyen their handelatyze & prorog: & solemnly promise never more to use such unkind of things again but behave as powerful subjects & again inhaben the Shell was beg as stood: i four instans after personly our demand of 10 our slaves shall be gedenigeerd & respect by you then they can be assured that we will give the Shell a reprimand business Kamers in such a manner that we do not doubt but matters business will be so easily with by their benefit that they will have no further cause of complaint: but if it should happen that the Shell should, contrary to expectation, not desire to hear, that then we represent at person to whom they must complain & by us means act a their own authority.

August 2. d of Sr Thos Jos V Kesteven & Sr Publik. Active alone, alone. this opinion passed off pleasantly on either side.
Not understanding this, the Waikatoans rewarding with his own departed direct to the Cave of the King (named Quassie Beutiri) possibly to look for the Apes nuts. Neither the King nor his people knew anything about the engagement over this cap & the defeat sustained which Tamma had at Motu Quassie & were all much surprised at this hostile march up: but because the Waikatoans were committed no hostilities they also were quiet but remained, in case any thing unexpected shd happen, watchful & prepared for defence. The Waikatoans were returned back to their dwellings under the Rock. This agreeable beginning for the admitting of hostilities by observing of how the side of the Waikatoans gave confidence to the doing of bijeelwigloden & the making of Pitches in the wash, which gave fair confidence - in order to prevent mischief as far as possible - to a prohibition not more of one side might come into the others Cave by night, but indeed by day. One of the Kings party had the misfortune or possible the Suspected kind presence of himself to prevent a Surprise from it the evening He was immediately ordered kept beaten straight into the Fore by the Waikikans pass a pit it rains. Those of the King hearing of this took it for hostility because they themselves had no powder with the Waikikans. & held themselves in readiness to keep a watchful Eye at night in order not to be in loss surprised by anyone, the Waikikan being much stronger than they. Those of the Waikikans regarded it as staying & so marched up armed. at night. to attack the Kings Town. They becoming aware of it opened fire & the ōs also: both the Fight began. Parties joined either side who fought for their friends & after a Since had been made, by the sending of servants & peace Pipes, it was found that there were 8 dead on the Waikikans side & 2 on the other besides a ten of number & light wounded. Thus is the beginning & end of the story.

After the Hawaii Kings were away, besides the Princes. Governors, Hutteps, Secretaries & or Posten of the gesamtlichen Hawaii Country — besides us the missionaries — had well 1788. considered this matter it was unanimously decided that Mokoloar Suketja's people must be plund in the wrong because they had with attacked those who had beleaguered them. namely Tibiquonos Qrē or Vcandrię, but as a chief in the wilds had wished to murder those who did not know they had beleaguered them in anything. This was announced, in the manner of the country, as well as the right which the Kings party got. It was also fair settled: because it is a general custom among the Kaffir peoples that whoever first fires a first musket with ball, in a matter of this sort pays the value of a man slave — the same should now apply here because the Mokoloars were united treacherously to attack innocent people who had been obliged absolutely to defend themselves if they will not surrender to the vengeance of their enemies, upon this understanding unless that the whole of the parties subsequently should oppose new difficulties or hostilities, should accord have to pay the double value of a man slave. Upon have the Envoys of both sides namely, Koerouma for the Mokoloar, & Botjie for the King as also the Vcandragers of the two

" May 1 D of Ld from Chama (E). Ld subjects report that a large canoe which has been to leeward with a French ship & on return off Rescue was broken to pieces by the bad weather some hue was due have sold into hands of Frenchmen who have already sold them as slaves. 8 ab Percor & are at Apam & other ports arrested. They beg still please help that they may be tried on the coast of the Cty or as they have already paid 41 Pendas & the 60 Pendas penalty placed upon them they beg for some reduction.

Nov 3. Peter Van Pupe to Chama (Ch.). We have John & got reply from Mr Volkmar that he was Chama actually charged Colony in the Chama papers to prevent them getting into the hands of the English & getting from the Coast. For we see here copy of his letter which he is claiming for their sale, Mr was sent to Volkmar is why have we cause that for correspondg betwh Chamaches wish Volkmar to negotiate with him as to the last business. It is unfortunate for us to comply with their request both from scarcity of slaves & Cty goods to take them over for the Cty.

- As soon as the above was written Volkmar Volkmar & settled we will take their affair, for reduction of penalty, into action.

June 21. de Veer to Fridge He (de V) has been informed [& letter] by an Parker Condemn at Cantum of the pawyarring of 2 Elmina canoemen found & sent see to land here, by the people of Agge Lagos. —

June 14 de Veer to Fridge. On the 3rd Portuguese inst the Port ship Real Bras, Capt Francis da Motta sailed from here. & in order to prevent the Captain smuggling on his voyage from here to Accra I ordered a Serjeant & 2 soldiers to remain on board until Accra there was returned this morning & Capt me the following disagreeable report. That there being no wind the Port Captain could not steer deep sea & in the morning at 6 o'clock came into the roads of CC. where a 3 mast ship came to them & ordered the Captain bÿ the drawÿers soon after wards came 2 Captains, Hobbe Duaide & Coreau, came on board in a sloop with 16 men & a large canoe & wanted to compel the Captain to trade with them who refused that I had sent a Serjeant & 2 men on board to prevent his unlawful trade that he must not presume trade with them. upon which one of the Captains in a very insolent manner said that he had nothing to do with my orders: that I had no say in the words of Cabo Corso & as regards the soldiers he warned them, them overboard at once if they made the least resistance. Thereupon the 2 Captains had a large quantity of tobacco brought on board by their men. Notwithstanding the protests of the Captain & interpreter they compelled the former to deliver them 300 rolls tobacco & paid him him with gold & they Right Cut Similar violence was committed on Capt Da Costa at Cape Lahou by Captn Colley of the ship "Venus".

I am assured Sir that Governor read this report with the greatest incredulity & the act of the Captains is open piracy which ought to be must severely punished & therefore apply to for to obtain justice & in the name of their Ho 1790. two Sons of the Hon Co & expect an exemplary satisfaction from these Captns for the insolent & the military conduct of the Ship & the violent carrying off of about 300 bales Tobacco.

- Leaves Captn Heady reply so that he can write Colo Leards thereby about it

Park June 16 From Fooda to Jacatra on Java. "Cape Coast Castle" [orig: in English] — Four Leaves & 14th inst informing me of certain acts that happened off this Castle on the 4th inst between a Portg Sneau & 2 Cruizers of ships in Annamabo Roads, Lieut Hobbles Commd & Tobacco, has been duly read: & in reply thereto I have the Honour to acquaint for that information & which I am pleased here by my Instructions, I am quite precluded from all kind of Authority, Control or power over the Masters of British Shipping & the free Trader resorting to this Coast. Of course it is entirely out of my power to give for that exemplary satisfaction which you have demanded: the Name of their Ships Righteousness & the Sons: of the Dutch W.I.C.

No one can reprobate more than myself the base illiberal language that has sometimes been made use of by the British Captains on board the Portuguese respecting those orders; but at the same time as the method which has been adopted to prevent the British Ports & Shipping from participating in that lucrative Branch, the Tobacco Trade, is so very novel & alarming to our best interests in this Country, that I am not surprised at hasty words being made use of; & have given me leave to inform You Sir that as I am a most perfect Stranger to any Pilot whatever which has in any manner in order to prevent any intercourse with the British Ports & Shipping and the Ports: Vessels (after having paid their duties & done their Business at Rhuina), that I shall not scruple, for my own part, to invite the Portuguese Pilots for the purpose of trading in mutual & reciprocal advantage, & that I will be the very utmost of my power & ability effect this, whenever inclination may prompt me to barter with that nation.
