Fort Fredericksburg where I arrived at 10 o'clock noon and of the Commander & the garrison with all the respect due could be desired.

The first business was to enquire into the cause of this war which found to be entirely thus:—

11 April the master of the Hollander at Bein claimed a certain negro woman named Ajebba who was a "blood friend" of San Tommy as his slave woman, which the other denied, on these. The first former sought assistance in the name, in judgment, chiefly to have opportunity to ruin this last; at length the 4th April comes unexpectedly with a hurricane fire & our vessel left the Bay's master there under the loss here, he was so well used that he was obliged to waken with ^{2nd} Schande. Jan Comyn had made water, ^{soekt} suet out all given John Russell by Acorda, a between Acorda & Texaco.

The Holland General was thereupon with all his force the Elvins Company, Sarcade & Bortz, & the English the Costo Costo, just as if Jan Comyn was seeking to get nearer their homes at Bortz & Texaco, & ^{permitted} passed him under the cannon of the ship Acorda: Parry & putting permission him to this way's approach that to Rodriguez Jan Comyn: who readily refused this, saying that as long as he had power shall he armed maintain his subjects letting his flag (which though Gebrek is now flying from the fort here) being a white flag with the letters F. B., fly from his flagstaff. This is the black flag of which I made mention above.
Not satisfied with this answer they were still wax & when the Commander judged that he had better host, so did his best he with little success. However they attacked the fort the Verwoede men & captured it stormed the garden, carrying the whites & the

To the Assembly with the memory that the of the W.C. the Assembly of Σ being most assembled in the House that this had taken into serious consideration the "constitution" of the said City where the same could be brought into a better shape Providing that that it was in a way to let the country community and the whole thing enjoy more profit they had hoped for that no more suitable means could be introduced than for the W.C. be united & combined in a sympathetic manner with the E.C. ... to which we are, this, has drawn up & formed a project of combination of both City, the same being annexed to the memory to which they wished their Mother's benevolent attention. Upon which being deliberated the steps of their of their eldest and have taken after that, for action in their midst, resolved

Of which the largest part of the EIC Africa was the for the EIC. and the great gains & profits it would certainly draw & receive therefore can every one have a knowledge of the "constitution" of the EIC. very easily understood & must be fully acquainted with it.

XV

For if with all the best of the goods & merchandise which are required for the Trade in the of the Coast & are sent there by the EIC. must be purchased by the EIC namely the Portuguese or Cannoe & many sorts of by goods without which the Trade cannot be drawn & prosecuted thus which of the goods mentioned, as also under other names, could be conveyed chiefly out of the EIC. to the great C of Guinea & the they are scarcely like the outside of B.C., the so they could therefore keep the same to themselves for the trade ^{itself} the whole of the slave trade would fall into ^{the} their hands and be driven by it alone. Which & how much profit could be drawn from the trade in such cases can well be guessed, but not positively set down: it being quite true that the W.C. has not been able to make such considerable ~~profit~~ progress because it has never been solely working of the ^{spirit} ~~spirit~~ of the slave trade: but since as the slave trade is ~~always~~ has been still in the largest revenue of the W.C. is most absolutely ~~plain~~ that if the trade were driven by the E.C. alone, which ^{as} the ^{various} can derive with trade human obligation, all the Arguments of abolitionists would be obliged to retract and to say that the duty of slaves, & indeed a lot of things a direct price to the E.C. slave trade ^{from} ~~from~~ which ~~the~~ ^{the} unnumbered scholars would applaud & be rich.

XVII

To which profits ^{the} slave trade ^{was} ~~was~~ ^{was} ~~was~~ also be added, as essential, that there being many rich Gold mines on the C of Africa, also ~~that~~ much Gold can infallibly be found there, if earnestly & intelligently was bestowed there to a required extent ^{in money} which could not be done by the W.C. also ^{being} ~~very~~ ^{invaluable} ~~though~~ all too many disasters suffered & which disasters during the war both by the capture of their ships by the enemy, & the blighting of the same, & otherwise actually amounts to over 4 millions.

would likewise be considerable for the W.C.

The following meeting being called off a letter was in line the C. of P. over England. ~~at same~~^{so} is found & read the letter from the Rev. Mr. Thoburn Daplesport Roberts written at Elmwood the 6th November of last year 1716 read to the Assembly of the X antiq. report of the introduction of affairs which has happened as so was ... — Resolved that so letter be placed in hands of Messrs de Peckham Masters to be report same to the meeting.

The original above letter is WRC 447. 1402 as follows:

Messrs de English Agents at Cabo Cons have been pleased to advise us that within 2 days to the illustrious Chamber of the X a ship would depart from there direct to England which opportunities I have considered it as duty to capture is also to give little some information of the existence of affairs here on the coast specially & thus is in probability of being able to do so before the new year, & also it will not be possible to do this completely the statements of little (and which I especially expect secure) we will however also therefore conclude the good things: which has nearly our purpose to take the liberty to address little, you de voorwaarde zaken met die van

The navigation of the English rather nations is again rising good strong as ever before whereby the trade has not been all too favorable for the other part, chiefly in the two first months after the departure of the ship from anchor to the expectation that we had of it. Since then it has been quite increased so that we hope to reach the end of the year the returns will be very much enlarged to which we can assure ~~that~~ that we shall consider our utmost desires, indeed we desire to assure that all of the goods consigned to the ship Andrichen little or nothing will likely be remaining.
The return cargo now in stock consist: gold

 The command of the fort was replied to him that this

 I do not doubt the matter will be settled amicably of which we will have full news in our next & do not us & was of England & then it was the situation of affairs on the Coast & after this what passed with the General de Bors about the Blum & Russian Port Friedrichsburg & on what grounds he has given the same into the custody of San Comuz.

 While he, San Comuz, was at the residence of Pothier would certainly call it same to the French. We can fully approve what has been done in this matter & for let us fear also, with of it, that this goal is of the utmost importance by it.

the French before Jt must well have to challenge in works by the most suitable ways & means in order to win & prevent such: No other and finally to cause some "holle" persons two or more legally to speak with San Comy & try to hear from him that he has resolved to call for Fredericksburg to the hands: when Jt shall have a favourable declaration which belongs to us too: and to have

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of fresh air.
 It was a relief after being stuck in traffic for hours.
 The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing.
 It felt like a new beginning.
 I took a deep breath and smiled at the world around me.
 Everything seemed so peaceful.
 I was finally home.

Copy of the letter written to Grave van Tournay by the W.C. at Batavia dated [14 Aug. 1717] ¶ A little time ago had come to our hands thro' J.E. some copies of letters written by the de Melandore, Secy of State of the Port., to Mr. Schonenberg at that time Minister of the W.C. of the 6th Dec, containing various names of Portuguese ships which had been badly treated on the C of G. by ships of W.C.
& had been plundered of their goods, with request for reparations of misbehaviour, recompensation for the damage suffered; & a consequence of which J.E. would have advised himself to the W.C. at Batavia, before presenting four invoices to the W.C. has been so good as to inform us of those matters: & order that we will inquire J.E. on the subject that this work and thereby be kept outside for strangement. For which finally should a action we find it our feeling duty to state it.

 And we have first to inform you that we have enquired about that matter so far as it can as yet be done being "destitute" of the necessary reports from the C of I about that matter: but in order to ascertain as much as possible we have however spoken with the shipping master officers who have returned from the C of I & questioned them seriously whether they had any knowledge of misadventures to Port: ships caused by ships of the W.C. As they declared they knew nothing of such - & nothing about it has been found: the cargo ships sent out to us, so if it is true it must have been done by ^{ships of} other nations - but that some ships Port ships of which mention is made in the Letters from the S of S de Mendonca... have been stranded on the C of I & outboard goods which out of the same is a fact known usual & customary, & that these ships have arrived furnished their cargo as indicated & have not been in any way mishandled thereby ... - they have not seen the reports - which the complaints are based, but if ^{you} see them they find the reports to be true they are really thus their departure & the return to the city of Spain.

And also we might consider & it is true that all Port. ships trafficking within the limits of our Charter & with their cargoes, can be confiscated for the benefit of the W.C. & clearly appears from the 6th Art. of the Treaty of Peace of 30 January 1648 concluded at Münster we have however, considering the good commerce between the King of Port other Nations &c, so far been satisfied with taking not ~~for~~ only all the contraband goods which were found in the same.

For although well word comprises that the Portuguese by not being subjects of this State are also not bound by its laws, & it ~~is~~ ^{should} be almost den to those people & individuals of the C. of G. yet we consider on the other hand that anyone, wherever he will be, wishing to traffic in the jurisdiction of another must have previous permission thereto from the Sovereign of those places to which he is going willer transportation, for otherwise given permission in your hand to usage (sic) your liberty for usage with off acting by other potentates or their inhabitants, if any King prince or potentate should be pleased to find good to permit himself subjects to trade traffic in the jurisdiction of another potentate or power; all which would be entirely contrary to the established Law of the Volkmen. As we see by Custom or privileges being particular Privileges Verkeper Cabluide both both Bornen & children of any lands or colonies (as it was the subject of C of P) it was after much trouble & expense to be able to draw some profit from them, yetts can be order, who had contributed nothing due to, & no matter in addition

But in case, by Kings Princes or Powers, by treaties or conventions such permission is expressed to the inhabitants & subjects of one of both in order to navigate to several parts & to be allowed to trade there, then such must be either Volge & navigation Settled that on the 15th but 3rd art. of the Treaty of Peace between the King of Port & St Geo of 6 Aug^r 1661, is agreed that the inhabitants of the Is. shall be allowed to trade freely & in all security both from Portugal with countries & islands being under the obedience of Portugal, to Brazil; and likewise from Brazil to Portugal with countries & islands belonging ^{under} to the same obedience of Portugal: & further it is expressed by the said 3rd art. And this Art: was confirmed by Art 21 of the said Treaty of Commerce & alliance of 31 July 1669

At this opportunity, speaking of the Treaty of 1661 we must reference to the 1st Art: in the 1st article it is expressly stipulated, & also accepted by the King of Portugal, that the King shall give back or cause to be given back all the cannon found by the Portuguese or the capture of the Privateer
...

Likewise the King has not been able to obtain the lawful arrears of 94,289 guldens which the Port Afr: Comp^y is due for the slaves transported for with names ^{Monte} Manuel

It is certain that the King has no right

[WRC. 41.]

1920

21 August 1920.

Mr van Collen has reported at the Ann Arbor Oct 14th the President - & others - have spoken with the late Sir: Pen Hargreaves Hargreaves concerning the profits that he has made from the C. of D. whether drawings of gold mines would not be done in the near future; that Mr Hargreaves was of opinion that that could be undertaken with probability of success but that everything must be dealt with in haste so that not provisionally two parties might be made at the mouth of the river Procter in order to become masters thereof so as to maintain that position against the others ...
 After which resolved to write next letter by Postmaster General. [QV L.B.K. WRC corresp. I p 200].

 ... therefore represent again to His, that by the treaty concluded at Munster in 1648, the navigation & traffic of the E & W Indies, between the King of Spain, at that time ruling, his successors of the one part & the two of the other part was regulated & limited, with regard to the subjects of Spain with navigation & trade such as they then had in the E^t. which that they will extend it further, & with regard to the subjects of the State that they should have to leave out-handled here the places then being possessed by Spain then; that these Articles have always been religiously observed & the subjects of the Spanish, and Austrian Netherlands, have never been permitted to trade to the Indies: that the said Netherlands having come under the protection of the Imperial & Catholic Majesty have not obtained, in this respect, any more right than they had before; that it can be seen yesterday's Vattel that their two have made so immense a great efforts & contributed so much to "compensate" the Spanish Netherlands as well as other parts of the Spanish Monarchy for the loss of Catholic Majesty according to the representations thence taken, by the taking of such representations should have reached Jerusalem or should have arrived to include from their Verleuse Charter & from their right to the maintenance of the same & the other parts of the Monarchy obtained not only.

Of it should be this Majesty's intention, or the compensation representation of the other Netherlands in this regard to make any distinction in the of a Treaty, still less much less to be decided the State is a point so important & essential for itself & of the Monarchy negotiations so strongly insisted on, that without it the Treaty would never have been concluded, contrary to the stipulations so clearly expressed in the Treaty of Münster; and by that that by the 26th Article of the Treaty of Barrière it is expressly stated that the commerce & all that is dependent thereon shall remain wholly & entirely upon the basis established by the Treaty of Münster & in the manner proposed in the Articles of the 1st Treaty, & this being

Notes for

To the Hon S.S. of U.S.

We have had the honor to receive of the Hon S.S. of 15th April and of the Hon Resolution of same date ... We have with us for the first time a report of all that which is reported in the first letter from the President through which we at Court are from anywhere else. We can also hardly conceive of the so many both because we do not know of any occasion having been given for it & because such an undertaking would be a notorious exceeding of all previous limits & would have to be held to be a definite breach of the peace besides that it also would have to make us & all others extremely uncomfortable to have a to and fro as common or ungentle with the Portuguese, especially if one would recall the old happened in former times & of which the King still feels the distress. We have nevertheless not failed to send copies to the King of Lisbon of the report ^{come} that is a intended him to receive well the grounds of the Portuguese & also to take the same into better care that the King suffers no injury, that the King's forts are supplied with proper garrisons.

It would have been somewhat dangerous to us if the former President, upon his information obtained, meant to have sent out another boat without waiting for orders about it, but of his own accord addressed himself to the Ministry in Portugal, or where it was proper, & there presented all the Arch reports that came to him & that he would not be able to ~~of~~ otherwise to bring the same to the knowledge of the others unless we were pleased to assure him to the contrary, to give communication of the orders & opinions which might have been given.

the President had previously reported in this alteration under the name of Fort Beaupre long had indeed been offered by an Islander to Capt. Seneo but that he had not dared to accept except such because his equipment being weakened by the long voyage he had not sufficient men over & order to garrison occupy the fort with a sufficient garrison: but this (bottle) was not in this news, but little ^(ie: Kingston) space was left for the sea news there, but that he could not expect to communicate the same to this bottle because it is not sometimes so favorable to the state of the good islands of the Republic to send any of his letters to the President of the President for his information.

Resolution's Notes General 1425 [WRC S.9. 684]

17 April 1425

Is read at Assembly the memorial of the King of WRC Port saying that it had long known the unpopularity & with great surprise to them that the ship Saxony Staffin Roald Ross sailed out of the lands to Africa, on coast of the S. E., to fetch slaves after long taken in 584 slaves at Fida or Adara, on the 24th October 1424 had been lustily attacked by a King's ship mounted with 44 guns, named Punio Luncto & commanded by Cape de Lopp loop in Africa where the S. ship Saxony had camped in order to provide salt and water & provisions; the S. Port ship being commanded by one Jan Darsan, having by him a dora [Gara O. Bark]. whether it being possible for the Skipper of the S. ship to obtain any restitution & recompense but only of the plundered ship on 22nd Nov. asking as first to be seen in the letter from the most Commander of the S. ship, the Skipper having died.

answered to the sd memorial: that the sd determination is the more directed because the same Port ship had previously taken on aboard another ship a Portuguese named Jeffrims Maria Jacoba, Skipper & deck, as appears from ofa letter: that here by command of the islanders of the crew as avariciously grafted, they would have justifiable reasons to demand that those who have done the sd wronging & avaricious must be rather & perhaps of pirates than of avaricious hands if it had not been said that the commanding officer San Damsan had with sufficient like General & service of the King of Port: provided with a Commission to build a fort there to deterrence all the ships of the W.C. of these lands which he could haveochipen: that this was almost compelled the Powers to believe that these matters were not done but with the knowledge, lost of the crown of the King of Portugal especially of this its law to a pleasure to consider, finally that this San Damsan was probably the same person who some months ago was said which R. H. was accustomed to give to all our Captains: that he had orders to examine these matters carefully; that he was busy with that and hoped to be able to reply to me shortly; that the maritime de hors of the Capt.

 had been in service of the ship: that he could well assure me that the Government would grant no conviction to Captains of the Capt. but on the contrary, & that he hoped or wished that this so long gettousent belated natural friendship with those who despite of private quarrels or tempers will do all to cause any charge or vexatious trial: And finally, the Court testified to us that the Lord has no inclination whatever to the punishment of such a King in his Kingdom & has always regarded San Damián ^{personally} as a man of no
