the State would agree with the Coy, the amount:

From which see in Whitlock's Resolutions of conform to resolutione Cochin, the sum 100,000

Council of State being requested & answered that said sum of interest says gelicht geworden.

Now which has been heretofore advanced it can then appear to of Whitlock on what points upon what it comes that the C of S also is claiming the 100,000 rds quite there from W.C.

But as the two consider they have good reasons for declining to pay it as being already gescholen in ~~the~~ service of Whitlock's Letter which the King has signed to the King of on 1st July 1669 concluding ~~and~~ a firm treaty of commerce & alliance with the Crown of Portugal - has been pleased to vastly ^{to} ^{the} ^{of} ^{the} ^{places} ^{Cochin} & Cananor should ^{be} ^{permitted} ^{to} ^{remain}, as they are at present, in the power of Ybollo & in the hands of the E.I.C. for assurance & benefit of the payment within six termynen provided in the treaty of 1661, experience & diligence in the month of April 1668 amounting to the sum of seventy hundred thousand guldens. the company under the Crown of Portugal being empowered to claim the restitution of those places before the payment of the experience termynen; nor on the other hand that Ybollo should be empowered to demand from the Crown of Portugal the sum of thirty hundred thousand guldens, so long as the company continued to keep those places: as has before been seen in the Arts 1 & 2 of 1st Treaty.

To which also comes, that clause in the Treaty of 6 Augt 1661 was broken by the breach of the W.T.C. that the King & Kingdom of Portugal should pay the sum of forty hundred thousand crúzades - one crúzade being calculated at 2 Caroly guldens Hollandts gelt - & produce the sum in cash or in sugar tobacco or salt valued at the price it was sold at the daily "cours" of Amsterdam in Portugal, at the time of sale, Art 58.

And the sum being divided into sixteen equal parts the payment made in instalments annually at a certain fixed time; but in stood altered, the payment of the sum in the treaty of 1669 is ^{generally} of 20 years as is to be seen in Arts 3 & 8 of said treaty.

(8)

Part of the sum of which the King respectfully considers evidently a mistaken debt by J. H. Co. - is ^{in pursuance} of the Resolution of 22nd Decr, - has been really & actually disposed of - by the treaty with Port of 1669 - not only a sum of 100,000 rals but of a sum of 30 times hundred thousand goldens which the Crown of Port. owed to the W.C. and dweltke can resolve Crown, over and not concerning the King has been remitted; but rather & believe the expediency of the old treaty which was so much more favourably ^{a stipulation} lodged, by the ~~the~~ first treaty, & so consequently the claim to be 100,000 Rals has not been brought under these terms in which J. H. Co. ~~is~~ is the said resolution, declare that the King shall be dealt with in all equity & justice. ^{gelandelt} ^{because} the King request that Portugal may be pleased with only to declare that the sum of 100,000 rials, which is also now ~~also~~ being claimed by the C of S, has been unethically sold and requested by Portugal's disposition & agreement with the Crown of Portugal: but also expanding with a reasonable eye the great loss of 30 times hundred thousand guilders as wages in favour of the W.C. may be dispensed as Portugal

- fair accounted high wisdom find good & judge with justice. In name of his high/ Joh Althuisius.
